Dear Author,

According to initial assessment of the Scientific Committee, your Abstract "Determination Of Corrosion Of AISI/SAE 1020 Steel With Commercial Anti-Corrosive Coatings By Immersion Test" has been SELECTED to be presented in the "Oral" sessions, thematic area "Material Science And Engineering".

We remind you that extended contributions could be published in one of the two journals associated with this scientific event. If you are interested, we invite you to send your extended paper for an editorial review; selected works will be published in a special volume of the IOP Conference Series: Materials and Engineering Science (ISSN 1757-899X), which is a Scopus indexed publication, or in the UIS Engineering Journal (Revista UIS Ingenierías-ISSN 2145-8456), which is an indexed publication (Ebsco, Latinindex).

Finally, we would like to remind you that registration for the event is already available in the section "Fees" at:
